

The Identity Paradox: How Our Multiple Identities Both Divide and Unite Us

Judith Levi will examine the complexity and sources of individuals' multifaceted identities, how they influence our "reconciliation readiness," and how we can use them to unite instead of divide us—by refocusing on our common humanity.

Professor Judith Levi is Associate Professor Emerita, Department of Linguistics, Northwestern University and Author & Lecturer on German-Jewish Reconciliation.

Monday, November 18, 2019
7:00-8:30 p.m.
Northbrook Public Library
1201 Cedar Lane, Northbrook IL

Space for this event is limited. To RSVP, email dkittoe@handsofpeace.org

This event is sponsored by Hands of Peace.