MONOCHROME TONE

Featuring Makeba Kedem-DuBose | Curated by Fran Joy

APRIL 2 – MAY 1, 2022

Chicago native, Makeba Kedem-DuBose, is a multi-published, multidisciplinary artist, curator, and former gallerist. She studied interior design at Harrington College of Design, and completed a Visual Arts Certification Program in Curatorial Practices at the University of Chicago's Graham School of Continuing Liberal and Professional Studies at Hyde Park Art Center in 2017. She is a career artist practicing throughout greater Chicagoland, and has exhibited both nationally and internationally for over 30 years. In 2021, Kedem-DuBose was nominated for the prestigious 3Arts Award, and her work was added to the collection of Chicago's Field Museum of Natural History's 2020 Covid Collection.

Galleries are accessible.
Face masks & proof of vaccination are required upon entry.
Exhibitions are free and open to the public.
