

EVANSTON ART
CENTER

All The Water That Ever Was, Now Is

Featuring Rebecca Keller

April 1 — May 7, 2023

EVANSTON ART
CENTER

1717 Central Street, Evanston, IL 60201
847.475.5300 | www.EvanstonArtCenter.org

All The Water That Ever Was, Now Is

Featuring Rebecca Keller

April 1 — May 7, 2023

Reception: Saturday, April 15, 1-4pm

Galleries are accessible.
Exhibitions are free and open to the public.
Masks are optional but strongly recommended.

GALLERY HOURS

Monday–Thursday: 9 am–6 pm

Friday: 9 am–5 pm

Saturday–Sunday: 9 am–4 pm

Rebecca Keller is a scholar/artist/writer, recipient of grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, two Fulbright awards, the Illinois Arts Council and a TED talk.

She has exhibited her artwork in the US, China and Europe, including at The MCA, Chicago, the Portland Art Museum, Jane Addams Hull House Museum, the Estonian National Museum of Art and many others. Her book about her projects in public historic sites, Excavating History; When Artists Take on Historic Sites was published by Stepsister Press, and her essay “Mazes and Mirrors; Reflections and Play” is published by the Frans Hals museum for The Transhistorical Museum project. Keller’s fiction has won the Betty Gabehart prize and two Pushcart nominations. She was a finalist for the 2013 Chicago Literary Prose award, and her first novel “You Should Have Known” is newly released by Crooked Lane Books/ Penguin Random House.

This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council Agency and the EAC’s general membership.

COVER: Rebecca Keller, Lakeside

EVANSTON ART CENTER

1717 Central Street, Evanston, IL 60201
847.475.5300 | www.EvanstonArtCenter.org

All The Water That Ever Was, Now Is Featuring Rebecca Keller

April 1 — May 7, 2023
Reception: Saturday, April 15, 1-4pm

Galleries are accessible.
Exhibitions are free and open to the public.
Masks are optional but strongly recommended.

GALLERY HOURS
Monday–Thursday: 9 am–6 pm
Friday: 9 am–5 pm
Saturday–Sunday: 9 am–4 pm

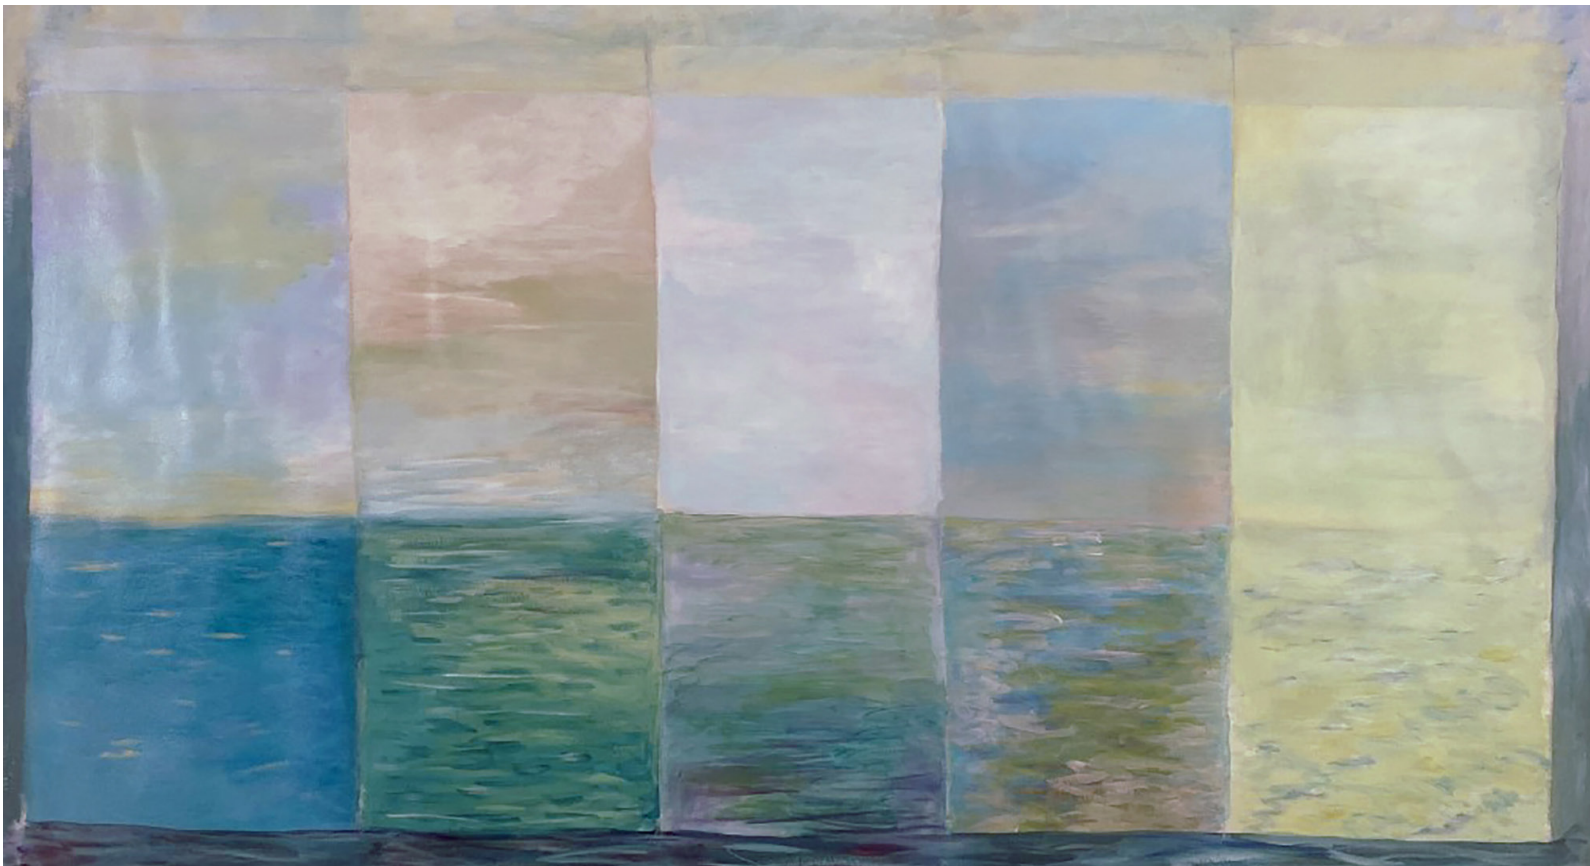

This program is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council Agency and the EAC's general membership.

Rebecca Keller is a scholar/artist/writer, recipient of grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, two Fulbright awards, the Illinois Arts Council and a TED talk.

She has exhibited her artwork in the US, China and Europe, including at The MCA, Chicago, the Portland Art Museum, Jane Addams Hull House Museum, the Estonian National Museum of Art and many others. Her book about her projects in public historic sites, Excavating History; When Artists Take on Historic Sites was published by Stepsister Press, and her essay “Mazes and Mirrors; Reflections and Play” is published by the Frans Hals museum for The Transhistorical Museum project. Keller’s fiction has won the Betty Gabehart prize and two Pushcart nominations. She was a finalist for the 2013 Chicago Literary Prose award, and her first novel “You Should Have Known” is newly released by Crooked Lane Books/ Penguin Random House.

COVER: Rebecca Keller, Lakeside

EVANSTON ART CENTER

All The Water That Ever Was, Now Is
Featuring Rebecca Keller
April 1 — May 7, 2023